Presenter 1—John Griffiths, PE, Principal: Devising YOUR Emergency Power Strategy

Reliable and scalable emergency power is of crucial importance in any healthcare facility. With a greater reliance on technology in delivering the patient experience, this essential service is emphasized now more than ever. We will be addressing some of the opportunities and challenges associated with providing E-Power systems and key considerations when evaluating these choices within your own facilities.

Presenter 2--Courtney Richardson, PE, Mechanical Engineer: Trending Now: Microgrids

The CEC and CALISO are paving the groundwork to support microgrids in California through grants and legislation. Microgrids have been seen as a significant player to curb California's over-production of renewable energy while supporting facilities financial and energy goals.
